LARIA Mini Newsletter July 2025

Courses, Training Events and Webinars

There are new webinars in this series.

Events are open to all:

Homelessness & multiple disadvantage: responses to address women's trauma

Wed 10 September 2025, 10 – 11.30am Book here

The role of Social Work in supporting people experiencing multiple exclusion homelessness

Tue 14 October 2025, 10 – 11am Book here

Webinar: SODA - A guide to successful data sharing across public services

Our next data webinar looks at data sharing across public services. The Suffolk Office of Data and Analytics (SODA) will share how they overcome information governance, processes and systems including how they shared record-level data that is identifiable.

We will also hear how they set up a linked dataset using Splink (an open-source Python package which helps deduplicate and link records without common UIDs) from planning to implementation along with an outline of the process and use cases.

This webinar is free to all English council officers and will be suited to analysts, intelligence specialists, and service leads from all departments who are keen to make better use of their data.

Date: 17 September 2025

Time: 11:00 until 12:00
